

GERMAN LAW AMPLE TO CURB MONOPOLY

Position to the Anti-trust Program of Democrats Steadily Growing.

UNION OF NEWLANDS

Seeks a Trade Commission That Is Necessary to Regulate Evils.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Opposition growing steadily in congress to tension bills proposed for inclusion in administration's anti-trust program designed to supplement the Sherman law. The feeling among many in both houses is that the Sherman law as it stands leaves little, if any, "debatable area," and that to with it might result in judicial action endangering the effectiveness of the act.

View to this view was given today during the proposed trust legislation before the senate interstate commerce committee by Senator Newland, the chairman.

Although these measures are known as "trust bills," Senator Newland said, "they never have been introduced in either house of congress, and the committee must determine what should be done with them." —and there are others who view this view—I believe that the Sherman law is ample to regulate unfair monopoly and unfair or unjust competition. With an interstate trade commission and a law to regulate the use of railroad securities to add force to the Sherman law, I believe the country would be amply protected against business evils.

Be Eliminated.
Views have been expressed by senators, Republicans as well as Democrats, and members of the house, there is a growing disposition to change the language of the definition of trusts in a marked if not to eliminate them from trust legislation programme altogether. H. Harris, vice president and counsel of the New York Central, indorsed before the house commerce committee today the proposal for the government to regulate issues of stocks and bonds by railroads under a federal incorporation act.

Federal incorporation act, Mr. Harris, would be constitutional in his opinion, and without it the government find it difficult to control railroad securities. Railroads, he said, much disturbed because of the difficulty of applying to various state laws for authority to issue securities.

Of Business Men.

Charles R. Van Meter, president of the University of Wisconsin, said that the congress should omit the trust programme bills which he said would further define unlawful trusts. He also declared any trust act should recognize and regulate cooperative corporations.

STOP WILL CURE

Wait for Children to Outgrow the Urinary System. Stop Talking Urinary Stop Today.

Wetting with all of its disagreeable results can be cured if given attention. This is a disease which is not a disease, but a condition which is cured by producing Urinary Stop. The wonderful cure by this remedy seems almost miraculous, but the many who have tried it prove its merit.

Wetting is not a local trouble but a disease, embracing the urinary system as well as the kidneys. Urinary Stop is put into form pure and harmless, and is the most delicate child medicine.

CONFERENCE CALLED TO MEET IN DENVER

Western Governors and Others to Discuss Irrigation With Secretary Lane.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Secretary Lane has called a conference on the general subject of the irrigation of the arid west to meet in Denver on April 6 and has requested the governors of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming to send representatives.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 27.—That the conference of western governors will be held in Denver, beginning April 6 and their deliberations concluded in time for the conference called by Secretary Lane, was the opinion expressed today by Governor Ammons, who is secretary of the western governors' conference.
The governor stated that he would take part immediately with the executive committee.

The governor expressed gratification over the issuance of the call by Secretary Lane and predicted that the general conference would result in a thorough discussion of subjects vital to arid land states and the formulation of a policy that would assure closer co-operation between the federal government and the states. He predicted a large attendance of governors and representative citizens interested in irrigation projects and the development of the public land states.

sin, agreed that only such combinations should be prohibited as were contrary to the public welfare without trying to define them specifically. The bill to prohibit interlocking directorates, Mat-thewson thought, should apply only to cases where there were direct business relations among the corporations involved. He added that he would not advise that a trade commission be permitted to say in advance that the government would not object to certain forms of organization.

President Van Hise thought the high cost of living was due in part to the co-operative arrangements between organizations and individuals as to the great combinations of capital. The situation is, he said, that many violate the law and only a few are selected for prosecution.

Early opportunity for the senate to consider the interstate trade bill was promised today by Democratic leaders.

MEMBER OF FAMOUS FAMILY IN PRISON

Fact Disclosed When George Edward Adams Brings Suit Against Former Wife.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 27.—George Edward Adams, now serving a ten-year term in McNeil's island penitentiary for having robbed the gold dust bags of the United States assay office in Seattle, filed suit today against his divorced wife, Mrs. Emily Clara Adams Herald, and her present husband, Ernest B. Herald, for an accounting of $40,000 worth of property which he Adams in trust when plaintiff was sent to the penitentiary.

Adams is alleged to have stolen $200, 000 from the miners, of which only $100,000 was claimed by them. His wife stood by him through his trial, but obtained a divorce after he was convicted. When he was released from prison in 1912, the divorced wife welcomed Adams embarked in a counterfeiting scheme and was taken back to the penitentiary to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence.

Mrs. Adams then married Herald, an attorney.

Adams is said to be a member of the old Massachusetts family that gave two presidents to the United States, and powerful influences have sought to redeem him.

M'REYNOLDS ABOUT TO START AN ACTION

Attorney General Believes Norfolk & Western Should Part From Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The department of justice, it became known tonight, has been looking into the relations between the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the Norfolk & Western with the idea of effecting a separation of the two roads or bringing suit under the Sherman anti-trust act. In the opinion of department officials the two roads are competitive. The Pennsylvania owned on January 1, 1913, $41,762,900 common and $11,330,000 preferred Norfolk & Western stock.
On October 31, 1912, the outstanding stock of the Norfolk & Western was given as $120,312,400.

Recently representatives of the Pennsylvania were told that the department looked upon the roads as competitors, and the suggestion was made that Attorney General McReynolds would like to see a separation.

While it was not understood that the Pennsylvania actually has thrown down the gauntlet of battle, it was reported here that it might be expected to fight. It was said that Pennsylvania officials do not regard the Norfolk & Western as a competitive line, within the meaning of the Sherman law. The department's attitude in similar cases has been clearly defined, and has been illustrated in the successful suit dissolving the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific merger, and the more recent case to bring about a dissolution of the connection between the Southern Pacific and the Central Pacific.

While a suit to sever the connection between the two roads would be brought to dissolve an alleged combination in restraint of trade, it was said that a successful suit might directly affect rates on bituminous coal from the West Virginia and Pennsylvania fields to New York and other eastern communities.

PORTUGAL AGAIN IN THROES OF ANARCHY

Many Clashes Between Police and Strikers at Lisbon; Unions May Be Dissolved.

MADRID, Feb. 27.—The Spanish government has received information that an important revolutionary movement is in progress in Portugal. According to an announcement made today by the Spanish undersecretary of state for the interior, a condition of anarchy exists throughout Portugal.

Every effort is being made by the authorities here to obtain full particulars of the occurrences in Portugal, but hitherto it has been impossible to learn definitely what is taking place, as all communication, even wireless telegraphy, is interrupted.

The foreign office received advices tonight from Lisbon that the Portuguese government was considering the forcible dissolution of the trade unions.
The report added that there were frequent clashes during the day between the police and the strikers.

EDITOR AND REPORTER FINED FOR CONTEMPT

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—George Burdick, city editor, and William Curtin, ship news reporter for the New York Tribune, were adjudged in contempt by Federal Judge Hand today for having refused recently to answer questions concerning their source of information relative to smuggling cases, accounts of which their paper printed. Each was fined $500, but the court said the defendants would have opportunity to purge themselves should they desire to answer the questions before another grand jury.

The case assumed wide interest recently when the newspaper men, after having refused to answer the questions

ANOTHER VICTORY WON BY MISS FERN HOBBS

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 27.—Miss Fern Hobbs, private secretary to Governor Oswald West, won another victory for Oregon prohibition forces today when word was received from County Judge J. C. Henry that the Union council court would meet March 4 and declare the town of Cove "dry."

When a recent local option election was held in Union county, Cove predicted voted dry, although the county majority nullified the precinct vote at Cove.

Governor West recently sent his private secretary to investigate conditions at Cove. Miss Hobbs previously was instrumental in closing the saloons at Copperfield.

ELECTION REFORM IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The house of commons today passed by 215 votes to 152 the second reading of a bill providing that all parliamentary elections be held on the same day. The liberal party argued that it will largely prevent plural voting and the disturbance of business by prolonged general elections. The unionist party opposed the bill, but the government has taken it under its wing.
